Multiple boxes or shipments weighing more the flat rates listed above will be quoted at the time of invoicing. If it is required that your shipment be sent via Canada Post because you are outside of our flat rate shipping areas then we quote a rate at the time of invoicing.

Damaged Goods During Transport—If goods are damaged during transport and there are visible signs of damage to the box for example the box is wet and or stained due to product leakage and there is a strong aroma as if something has leaked, and or the box is crushed or looks as though it has been tampered with, then it shall be your responsibility to refuse the package. Insist that the box be returned to the sender. If you accept the package, open it and then find any damaged to the contents - please contact our office immediately to report the damage. Do not discard the damaged goods and or destroy the packaging and box that the goods came in. In most cases if we need to file an insurance claim with the courier company then an inspection agent will need to see the damaged goods.

When placing your order via e-mail please identify yourself: your business name, your personal name, your mailing address, your shipping address, your phone numbers - day, evening, cell, your tax identification number, your Ontario Provincial Sales Tax Exemption Number (Ontario businesses only)

Product Notes:

Infused oils are herbal infusions in an olive oil base – they may be used directly on the skin or added to other skin formulas.

Arnica is well known throughout the world as a herbal remedy for bruises and muscular pain.

Calendula derived from the marigold flower a rich amber coloured oil known for it's nutrients that help to repair and heal damaged skin.

St. Johns Wort is well known for it's ability to help soothe muscular and arthritic pain through it's anti-inflammatory properties.

Rosehips are the fruit of roses and their seeds are known to contain high levels of anti-oxidants such as Vitamin C, Beta Carotene and Linolenic Acid. This nutrient rich oil has rejuvenating abilities and is often a main ingredient in skin care products to help minimize wrinkles and scarring by improving the elasticity of the dermis.

Rosehip Seed Oil, refined – is a light beauty oil can be used directly onto the skin or as a carrier oil for other nourishing oils.

Rosehip Seed Total – a concentrated extract – resin like – needs to be thinned and blended into other bases or oils.

Sea Buckthorn Oil is becoming a very popular ingredient in skin care products. The oil is extracted from the berries of this plant, which is native to China and Lithuania.

The oil is known to contain high levels of Vitamin E and it's rich Beta Carotene content gives to it's rich orange colour which creates a lovely warm tone when added to lotions and creams.

These extraordinary combinations of pure essential oils may be used in many different applications:

Use them neat in aromatherapy or essential oil diffusers for environmental fragrancing. Use them in various types of aromatherapy applications - at low proportions.

When creating your own products - we strongly advise that you conduct your own testing to verify product behaviour. Essential oils should never be used on the skin in their pure form.

Essential oils should never be used on the skin in their pure form. Essential oils can be irritating to the skin and should be added to other base ingredients at low proportions.

*Relaxation, Meditation, Blossom and Summer could also substitute for Body Synergies

Lip Balm - Suggested Recipe

1 Tablespoon bees wax beads, 1 tablespoon Jojoba oil or other oil, 1/4 teaspoon honey and 6—12 drops of flavour.

Melt bees wax slowly on low heat, add other ingredients and stir well.

Pour into tubes—makes approximately 6 tubes. Stand tubes in a tray of rice or sand to prevent them from tipping over.
